

Disability Awareness and Confidence Training Resources For Educators and School Staff

Explore the following links for comprehensive lesson plans, research, and best practices designed to support both students with disabilities and their peers. By utilizing these resources, you can foster an environment that values diversity and empowers all learners.

|                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                        | <h3>First Impressions and Stereotypes - What's the Big Idea?</h3> First impressions can be misleading. We can do our part to make sure everyone is not erroneously judged and is included View Resource                                                                     |
|  Canadian Down Syndrome Society | <h3>Canadian Down Syndrome Society – Education Hub</h3> The CDSS Education Hub provides shareable resources and quick guides with practical tips to support collaborative learning in schools. View CDSS Education Hub                                                      |
|                                      | <h3>CanChild Research In Practice - F-Words in Childhood Disability</h3> This paper features six F-words that the authors state should be the focus in childhood disability - Functioning, Family, Fitness, Fun, Friends, and Future. View Resource                         |
|  COMMUNITY LIVING Ontario     | <h3>Community Living Ontario – Inclusive Education Resources</h3> When students who have disabilities are included in regular classrooms, they grow into valuable community members. View Resources                                                                         |
|                                      | <h3>Partners for Planning – Planning Network</h3> Their website provides free tools and information to support income security, innovative housing solutions, and community engagement, empowering families to create meaningful lives for their loved ones. View Resources |